

just outside the clerk's door that constitutes the assault?

5 A. We were trying to prevent Mr. Gammie from seeing legal documents pertaining to a lawsuit that he had launched against a fellow councillor, and he was angry that he was being prohibited from viewing these documents. They were opinions from our lawyers, and he felt that he had every right to, to view that document. The document was in the clerk's office. We managed to get him out of the clerk's office and into the hallway, and as the deputy mayor turned to close the clerk's door, the door closed and clicked shut, but just as it 10 clicked shut, Mr. Gammie leapt forward, putting his full body weight into the back of the deputy mayor, who went into the door face and shoulders first. And then he hit him a second time from the back, in the same fashion. He did not stand flat-footed and just push he put his entire body weight into 15 it.

Q. Okay. And, now, I understand that was reported the following day, September 6th.

A. That's correct.

20 Q. And in the meantime, that was around 12:30 in the afternoon on September 5th, when the...

A. That's correct.

Q. ...alleged assault. And after that there was approximately an eight hour long town council meeting.

25 A. No. We don't - it wasn't an eight hour meeting, but we did have a council meeting later in that afternoon.

Q. Okay. Was it six hours, seven hours?

A. I don't recall.

30 Q. Okay. Any idea, whatsoever, how long it was, or...?
